

John Conway Softball Camps

The John Conway Softball Camps provide unique learning environments for all levels of softball players - from beginners to elite college-bound players. Campers can choose from one of two camps while coaches may attend Conway's new one-day Coaches Clinic. The Basic Skills Camp is designed for pre-high school players, while the Elite Skills Camp is designed for high school level athletes.

The mission of the John Conway Softball Camps is to provide competitive and intense personal instruction while motivating each player to improve her skill and knowledge of the game. The camps will be administered by the Saint Louis University softball coaching staff as well as current Billiken softball players.

Saint Louis head coach John Conway

Current Saint Louis University head softball coach John Conway boasts over 20 years of coaching experience in St. Louis.

After a four-year stint at NCAA Division III Fontbonne University that produced three NCAA Tournament appearances, Conway was introduced as the SLU head coach during the summer of 2006. Along with his coaching staff, Conway directed the Billikens to their best season in program history, surpassing numerous single-season school records. They achieved a school-record 29 victories and advanced to the title game of the Atlantic 10 Conference Softball Championship.

Conway is still involved in the club scene in St. Louis. He has coached the highly-touted St. Louis Chaos and St. Louis Sluggers summer select teams, and his clubs have made numerous Amateur Softball Association (ASA) and National Softball Association (NSA) regional and national appearances.
